

TERMS AND CONDITIONS (QRMFN)

- Places for some QRMFN Family Program activities are limited.
- Registration for the QRMFN Family Program is open to all RDAQ Conference delegates' registered spouses/partners, and their child/ren. All registrations for those wishing to participate in the QRMFN Family Program (including children), MUST be received by 3 May 2022.
- The contractors providing adjunct childcare services do require advance notice of numbers and childcare cannot be guaranteed if registrations are not received by 3 May 2022.
- Children up to the age of 16 years will be cared for on Saturday night during the David Horn memorial gala dinner and awards as part of the children's program that night.
- Please be aware that due to regulations governing the marketing of pharmaceutical products, the pharmaceutical area of the trade display is not open to non-medical attendees including spouses/partners who are not doctors. This area will be clearly defined on a map provided with your welcome pack. To ensure our adherence to the regulations, we have designated the trade area as adults only.
- The family program is open to all spouses, partners' and families, including spouses/partners who are not accompanying children.
- If children are attending the family program sessions, there must be another adult in attendance in addition to the doctor attending the conference.
