RDAQ2026
ANNUAL CONFERENCE
25 – 27 JUNE 2026
Pullman Cairns International

Welcome

On behalf of the Rural Doctors Association of Queensland (RDAQ), we are delighted to invite you to join us at RDAQ2026. Planning is well underway for our 2026 conference to be held in tropical Cairns from 25 – 27 June.

Dr Anneliese Slack - RDAQ2026 Convenor

Since 1989, the RDAQ conference has brought Queensland’s rural medicine community together annually. Our rural healthcare family gathers to learn, inspire, and educate one another alongside valued exhibitors and guests.

Drawing delegates from remote, rural and regional Queensland across diverse medical and healthcare disciplines, our conference offers you an exceptional opportunity to connect with practice owners, general practitioners, rural generalists and regional specialists.

Our Sponsorship Prospectus features flexible packages tailored to your budget and objectives. Whether you choose to participate in our trade exhibition, showcase your services during plenary sessions, build brand recognition through strategic opportunities, or create an interactive lounge experience—each option is designed to foster lasting connections with our delegates.

We hope you can join us at RDAQ2026 to showcase your products and services and engage with our welcoming community. Together, we can continue building on RDAQ’s 35-year legacy of advancing healthcare equity for all Queenslanders, no matter where they live.

We are really looking forward to seeing you in Cairns!

About the Conference

RDAQ2026 will be held at the Pullman Cairns International from 25 – 27 June 2026.

The conference will provide a unique and comprehensive forum for exchanging innovations and developing new skills. Running over two and a half days with an additional day of preconference workshops, the program offers extensive learning opportunities for rural doctors.

Our conference attracts a high calibre of delegates from a diverse range of medical and policy backgrounds, committed to rural and remote healthcare.

About RDAQ

RDAQ is Queensland’s leading voice for rural doctors and the communities they serve.

RDAQ is a not-for-profit organisation committed to:

- Improving access to health care for rural and remote Queensland communities
- Promoting rural practice to medical students and practitioners
- Delivering skills and education to support rural practice
- Foster networks and connection between rural doctors
- Advocate for rural doctors and support their well-being

Why attend RDAQ2026?

Connect with 345+ healthcare professionals, including practice owners, general practitioners, rural generalists and regional specialists.

Reach rural Queensland efficiently – 85% of delegates work in MM3-7 locations across rural and remote Queensland, allowing you to increase your reach without the travel.

Engage the next generation – Connect with 100+ prevocational doctors and medical students who represent the future of rural medicine.

Grow with us – 30% of delegates attended the conference for the first time in 2024, demonstrating our expanding community and fresh networking opportunities.

Terms and conditions

Cancellation policy

Cancellations must be made in writing to RDAQ Conference Manager. Cancellations received before Thursday, 5 February 2026 will incur a service fee (being reasonable pre-estimate of administration, advertising and lost opportunity costs incurred) of $300 for each sponsored activity or trade cancelled and the balance of any monies then paid shall be refunded. Cancellations received before Friday, 3 April 2026 will receive a 50% refund. Where your company logo has been promoted on printed material or the conference website, your refund may be less than 50% and is at the discretion of the conference committee. Cancellations received on or after Friday, 3 April 2026 will not receive a refund.

Payment policy

Full payment for sponsorship/exhibition packages is due within two weeks of the application being approved. Sponsorship packages will be released for sale if payment is not received in the appropriate timing. Sponsor arrangements will not be confirmed until payment is received.

COVID-19 cancellation policy

Sponsor cancellations due to a COVID-19 related emergency (e.g. lockdown enforced in your jurisdiction, government imposed travel restrictions) received with supporting documentation will incur a service fee (being a reasonable pre-estimate of administration, advertising and lost opportunity costs incurred) of $300 for each sponsored activity or trade cancelled and the balance of any monies then paid shall be refunded. Cancellation of accommodation must be made directly to the property. RDAQ is not responsible for any cancellation fees or charges. RDAQ has developed contingency planning to adapt the conference program and delivery to meet government restrictions should they arise. Should RDAQ change program or delivery to meet government restrictions or health directives you will be provided with the earliest advice possible.

Sponsorship conditions

Neither RDAQ, the conference managers, nor the venue and their respective employees or agents accept any liability for damage to or loss of any equipment, materials or other belongings brought by or on behalf of an exhibitor to the venue of RDAQ2026. The exhibitor is advised to take out appropriate insurance cover accordingly. The exhibitor must maintain public and products liability insurance (at a coverage of at least $A20,000,000 at the expense of the exhibitor) for the duration of attendance at the venue and provide a certificate of currency for public liability to RDAQ at least 30 days before commencement of RDAQ2026. Please ensure that your certificate is valid during the conference dates and at the venue. The COVID-Safe plan will be available onsite and also provided as part of your confirmation pack.

Unavoidable occurrences

In the event that the opening, closing or duration of RDAQ is cancelled or amended due to unavoidable occurrences whether by decision of RDAQ, the venue, conference managers or any sponsor, and for any reason including but not limited to, fire, flood, labour disputes, natural disasters, civil disorders, riots, insurrections, work stoppages or disputes, or other similar events, then the sponsor shall not be entitled to any refund or to claim for any compensation, loss or damage.

RDAQ Annual Conference code of conduct

RDAQ aims to create a supportive, non-judgemental, friendly, fun, inclusive, empowering and professional learning environment for everyone to enjoy. Our 'Code of Conduct' helps to uphold these community values for our delegates, sponsors, volunteers and staff. We recognise all Australian laws relevant to Discrimination and Sexual Harassment and are committed to safety for our attendees, including feeling safe and supported to raise any concerns with us.

We ask all delegates, sponsors, volunteers and staff to be particularly mindful of their behaviour during licensed networking events. We support our venues to enforce Responsible Service of Alcohol standards. We are an inclusive organisation and will not tolerate any form of discrimination or harassment. Persons demonstrating behaviours consistent with sexual harassment or discrimination will be asked to leave the conference. Please ensure you respect other attendees' personal space.
