RDAQ2027 ANNUAL CONFERENCE

24 – 26 JUNE 2027

Novotel Sunshine Coast Resort

Welcome

On behalf of the Rural Doctors Association of Queensland, I am delighted to invite you to join us at RDAQ2027, to be held at Twin Waters on the beautiful Sunshine Coast from 24–26 June 2027.

Since 1989, the RDAQ conference has brought together Queensland's rural medical community to learn, exchange ideas and strengthen the relationships that support better healthcare across our state.

Our delegates come from remote, rural and regional communities throughout Queensland and represent a diverse range of medical and healthcare disciplines. The conference offers a valuable opportunity to connect with rural generalists, general practitioners, regional specialists, practice owners, doctors in training and other leaders in rural healthcare.

The organisations that support RDAQ2027 are more than sponsors and exhibitors, they are important partners in the future of rural healthcare. Your involvement enables you to build meaningful relationships with delegates, share practical solutions and contribute to conversations about the challenges and opportunities facing rural communities.

Dr Roisin Davis - RDAQ2027 Convenor

Our Sponsorship Prospectus offers a range of flexible opportunities designed to meet different objectives and budgets. Whether you participate in the trade exhibition, support a conference session, create an interactive delegate experience or build broader brand recognition, each opportunity is designed to foster genuine engagement with our community.

We hope you will join us at RDAQ2027. Together, we can build on RDAQ's nearly four-decade legacy of advocacy, connection and progress towards equitable healthcare for all Queenslanders, no matter where they live.

I look forward to welcoming you to Twin Waters and the Sunshine Coast.

About the Conference

RDAQ2027 will be held at the Novotel Sunshine Coast Resort from 24 - 26 June 2027.

The conference will provide a unique and comprehensive forum for exchanging innovations and developing new skills. Running over two and a half days with an additional day of preconference workshops, the program offers extensive learning opportunities for rural doctors.

Our conference attracts a high calibre of delegates from a diverse range of medical and policy backgrounds, committed to rural and remote healthcare.

Terms and conditions

Cancellation policy

Cancellations must be made in writing to RDAQ Conference Manager. Cancellations received before Thursday, 4 February 2027 will incur a service fee (being reasonable pre-estimate of administration, advertising and lost opportunity costs incurred) of $300 for each sponsored activity or trade cancelled and the balance of any monies then paid shall be refunded. Cancellations received before Friday, 2 April 2027 will receive a 50% refund. Where your company logo has been promoted on printed material or the conference website, your refund may be less than 50% and is at the discretion of the conference committee. Cancellations received on or after Friday, 2 April 2027 will not receive a refund.

Payment policy

Full payment for sponsorship/exhibition packages is due within 14 days of the tax invoice being issued. Sponsorship packages will be released for sale if payment is not received in the appropriate timing. Sponsor arrangements will not be confirmed until payment is received.

Sponsorship conditions

Neither RDAQ, the conference managers, nor the venue and their respective employees or agents accept any liability for damage to or loss of any equipment, materials or other belongings brought by or on behalf of an exhibitor to the venue of RDAQ2027. The exhibitor is advised to take out appropriate insurance cover accordingly. The exhibitor must maintain public and products liability insurance (at a coverage of at least $A20,000,000 at the expense of the exhibitor) for the duration of attendance at the venue and provide a certificate of currency for public liability to RDAQ at least 30 days before commencement of RDAQ2027. Please ensure that your certificate is valid during the conference dates and at the venue. The COVID-Safe plan will be available onsite and also provided as part of your confirmation pack.

Unavoidable occurrences

In the event that the opening, closing or duration of RDAQ is cancelled or amended due to unavoidable occurrences whether by decision of RDAQ, the venue, conference managers or any sponsor, and for any reason including but not limited to, fire, flood, labour disputes, natural disasters, civil disorders, riots, insurrections, work stoppages or disputes, or other similar events, then the sponsor shall not be entitled to any refund or to claim for any compensation, loss or damage.

RDAQ Annual Conference code of conduct

RDAQ aims to create a supportive, non-judgemental, friendly, fun, inclusive, empowering and professional learning environment for everyone to enjoy. Our ‘Code of Conduct’ helps to uphold these community values for our delegates, sponsors, volunteers and staff. We recognise all Australian laws relevant to Discrimination and Sexual Harassment and are committed to safety for our attendees, including feeling safe and supported to raise any concerns with us.

We ask all delegates, sponsors, volunteers and staff to be particularly mindful of their behaviour during licensed networking events.

We support our venues to enforce Responsible Service of Alcohol standards. We are an inclusive organisation and will not tolerate any form of discrimination or harassment. Persons demonstrating behaviours consistent with sexual harassment or discrimination will be asked to leave the conference. Please ensure you respect other attendees’ personal space.
